Dear Brother,

السلام علیکم ورحمة اللہ وبرکاتہ

On 15th November, 2013, Hazrat Khalīfatul-Masīh V (May Allāh be his Helper) delivered the Friday Sermon at Baitul Futūh mosque, London.

Referring to his recent tour of Australia and the Far East, Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) spoke briefly about God's immense blessings and bounties that had visited the Jama'at in the course of this tour. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said that the detailed reports regarding the tour are being published in Al-Fazl. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said that with every such tour and every passing day we are reminded of Allāh's blessings and of the gratitude we owe to Him, as we witness the proof of the truth of the Promised Messiah عليه السلام.

The first stop was Singapore where Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) stayed for ten days and met delegations from Indonesia, Malaysia, Brunei, Philippines, Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam, Papua New Guinea and Myanmar. A reception was held for non-Ahmadī friends. They were given an introduction to the Jama'at. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) also gave an interview to the media. After the reception, the participants expressed appreciation for the Jama'at and the message brought by Hazrat Khalīfatul-Masīh (May Allāh be his Helper).

Australia was the next stop. A reception was held in Melbourne, where 220 dignitaries, hailing from different walks of life, were invited. Many intellectuals and senior government officials were present. The delegates praised Huzoor's (May Allāh be his Helper) message and said that this message was one of humanity, and it should be adopted by everyone as it promotes peace, justice, tolerance and compassion. They also appreciated Huzoor's (May Allāh be his Helper) message that peace can only be established through peaceful means. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said that the Jama'at had acquired a new building for the Ahmadiyya Centre in Melbourne, consisting of a large hall that accommodates 3,000 worshippers.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) then proceeded to Sydney where he inaugurated the Khilāfat Jubilee Hall, which has the capacity for 1,400 worshippers. Many non-Ahmadī dignitaries attended the opening ceremony and spoke appreciatively about the teaching of Islām, Ahmadiyyat and the role of Khilāfat. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) also inaugurated a mosque in Brisbane. Here also a reception was held and the visitors appreciated the Jama'at's humanitarian efforts.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) then travelled to New Zealand and inaugurated the new mosque Baitul Muqet. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) also spoke about the Maori translation of the Holy Qur'ān which has already resulted in one Bai'at and another two are very close to embracing Ahmadiyyat. The reception that followed the opening of the mosque was attended by 107 dignitaries, including members of the print and electronic media. A program was also arranged in the Parliament's grand hall by a Sikh member of parliament. It was attended by a number of parliamentarians and diplomats. On this occasion Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) spoke about the establishment of peace and his message was well received.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) then went on to Japan, where a reception was held in Nagoya and attended by 117 dignitaries. On this occasion, the leader of the Communist Party said that the services of the Jama'at following the 2011 earthquake and tsunami are unforgettable. He said that the teachings of Islam are the key for world peace, and that Ahmadīs are distinguished by their zeal to serve their respective countries.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) spoke of the coverage given to Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) 's receptions and interviews in the magazines, newspapers, and radio and TV channels, which helped to spread the message of Islām and to propagate the Promised Messiah's عليه السلام message of peace, tolerance and brotherhood. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said that during this tour the message of Islām reached about 350 million people. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said that the propagation of our message at such a wide scale is in accordance with the Promised Messiah's عليه السلام prophecy that this is the age of perfect dissemination for the message of Islām. The coverage given by the media is far beyond our own efforts and serves as God's living testimony. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said that the message was not confined to the countries I visited but was spread to 45 other countries as well. The signs which Allāh had ordained for the Promised Messiah عليه السلام are manifesting themselves and continue to do so.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) prayed that Allāh may enable us to realize our own responsibilities and to be able to fulfill them.

At the end of the sermon, Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) informed the Jama'at of the tragic martyrdom of Bashir Ahmad Kayani Sahib of Karachi; of the sad demise of Abdus Sami Nur Sahib grandson of Hazrat Khalīfatul-Masīh I رحمه الله تعالى; and the sudden demise of Muzammil Ilyas Sahib, a student of Jāmi'a Ahmadiyya, Rabwah. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) (May Allāh be his Helper) led the funeral prayer for the deceased in absentia after the Friday prayers.

Please convey these guidelines given by Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) to members of your Jama'at.
