Dear Brother,

السلام علیکم ورحمة اللہ وبرکاتہ

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) gave an account of his tour to Germany and of Jalsa Sālāna Germany, and spoke about the bounties the Almighty God has showered upon the Jamā‘at during the trip.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) expressed his gratitude to Allāh, and talked about the impressions of the guests who attended the Jalsa.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said: One should always remain engaged in prayers and gratefully proclaim the bounties of the Almighty God.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) commended the services of the Jalsa volunteers and said that in such huge events some minor flaws always remain, so we should keep an eye on them, so that we can improve the arrangements in the future.

On 12 June 2015, Hazrat Khalīfatul-Masīh V (May Allāh be his Helper) delivered the Friday Sermon at the Baitul Futūh Mosque, Morden, London.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said: One should remain engaged in prayer no matter what the situation or circumstances are and proclaim the bounties of the Almighty God, as this increases a person in love for his Lord.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) mentioned his recent visit to Germany and his participation in the Jalsa Sālāna Germany, and expressed his gratitude to Allāh by relating a few faith-inspiring incidents and speaking about the grace and blessings of the Almighty God bestowed upon the Jamā‘at during the visit.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said: Through the Jalsa Sālāna Germany and other programs organized on this occasion the message of Ahmadiyyat was propagated across Germany on a very large scale. Surely, without Allāh’s grace and will, it is not possible for anyone to touch someone’s heart; even bombastic speeches, at times, fail to impact a person. On the other hand, simple words said in a simple manner, at times, manage to affect a person’s heart, and we witnessed this happening at the Jalsa.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said: By the grace of Allāh, many people attended the Jalsa from eastern Europe and other neighbouring countries of Germany. I personally met those people and had Question & Answer sessions with them. As a result, some of those people recognized the truth and took Bai‘at.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) spoke about the impressions of the guests about the Jalsa: They found love, sincerity and selfless devotion among the participants of the Jalsa and felt the arrangements of the Jalsa to be ever expanding and improving. Some of the guests said that for the first time in their life they met such a nice group of people. What impressed the guests most was the message of the True Faith which they said they found in the Jalsa. The guests also praised the arrangements of the Jalsa saying everything was organized in the best possible manner, and that unlike other events they found the atmosphere to be well-disciplined. The guests were deeply impressed by the message that all people are equal in the sight of Allāh, and that all the participants of the Jalsa demonstrated tolerance towards each other with no one mistreating anyone on account of religion, race or language.

The guests found every aspect of the Jalsa to be so captivating saying the manner in which the Khalīfatul-Masīh conveyed the message of Islām to the world was unique, that the spiritual impact of the atmosphere of the Jalsa was such as truly moved their souls, and that after listening to the speeches of the Khalīfatul-Masīh their perceptions of Ahmadiyyat were totally changed. The guests also said that the whole atmosphere of the Jalsa was full of a unique kind of love and compassion for each other and that they were deeply moved by the fact that hundreds of people worked voluntarily at the Jalsa without being paid anything in return. Also, the speeches made by the Khalīfatul-Masīh provided guidance to the right path, and that the words of the speeches were steeped in love, compassion and sympathy for each other. The guests praised the arrangements of the Jalsa saying they had not seen such a well-organized event before in their life. The guests also said that the Ahmadiyya Jamā‘at has proved that God is Ever-Living.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) drew the attention of the administration of the Jalsa towards the flaws left in the organization of the event and said: Wherever such large events are organized, some flaws are left in the arrangements. The administration of the Jalsa, therefore, is responsible to remove the flaws. We should keep an eye on our weaknesses and shortcomings. A lot of food has been wasted in the ladies’ side of the Jalsa. The Lajna administration of the Jalsa Sālāna Germany should keep reminding the ladies attending the Jalsa not to waste food. Another problem was that the accommodation provided to the guests was far off from the Jalsa site. The administration should provide the guests accommodation close to the Jalsa site. Also, the participants of the Jalsa should be reminded not to throw garbage here and there on the road; rather, they should try to keep the place neat and clean. Secondly, the guests should not make demands for any special food to be served to them. Whatever food is served during the Jalsa, one should be content with it and show patience.

Some volunteers become harsh with the guests. The volunteers should always treat the guests with kindness and facilitate them as much as possible.

The overall arrangements of the Jalsa this year were good. The Afsar Jalsa Sālāna and his team have done much better this year. May Allāh give the best reward to all the volunteers of the Jalsa, who really worked hard for the Jalsa! Also, I would personally like to thank the volunteers of the Jalsa for the hard work they have done.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said: Two mosques were also inaugurated during the trip. The inauguration ceremonies were attended by important dignitaries, who commended the noble work the Jamā‘at is doing and expressed their good wishes for the Jamā‘at.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) addressed the participants of these events and gave interviews to the media. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) also spoke about the coverage given to the Jamā‘at programs by the media. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said that through electronic and print media the beautiful teaching of Islām Ahmadiyyat was conveyed to around 107 million in Germany.

Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said: The Jalsa Sālāna is not only a means of spiritual and religious training for the Jamā‘at, but also helps convey the true picture of Islām to other people, who later take Bai‘at and join Ahmadiyyat.

Next, Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) announced the sad demise of Rashida Begum, wife of Muhammad Din Badr Sahib, a dervish of Qādiān, and spoke about her services for the Jamā‘at. Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) said that he would lead the funeral prayer in absentia of the deceased after the Jumu‘a Prayer.

Please convey these guidelines given by Huzoor (May Allāh be his Helper) to members of your Jamā‘at.

Jazākumullāh.

Wassalām,

(Hameedullah)
